All college offers will be "conditional or unconditional". The offer letters will outline the conditions of that need to be met to enrol on a course. Applicants will be asked to present evidence at enrolment that they have met all the "conditions" of their entry before they will be able to enrol on a course.

If we believe the course an applicant has applied to is not suitable for them, the student experience team will advise them from the following options:

- If the subject area is an appropriate choice, but the course level is not, then we will offer the applicant a conditional place on a lower or higher-level course within that same subject area.
- We may refer them to their second choice or a suggested alternative.
- We may refer them to either their school careers advisor or to the CIAG Team for further guidance.

If we cannot make an offer of a place to an applicant, further contact will be made to outline this and support with further information, advice and guidance.

The college will aim to ensure that applicants receive in writing the outcome of attendance to a student recruitment session/event within 10 working days. Applicants should respond within 10 working days, either accepting or declining their offer of a place in order to guarantee their place on the course.

Complaints Process

Applicants wishing to make a complaint or raise a concern about the application process should do so via the Complaints policy/procedure.

New staff undergo training on the college's application and admissions policy as part of their onboarding process. These sessions will cover core areas like eligibility criteria, application procedures, deadlines, documentation requirements, and decision-making protocols.

Since policies may evolve, annual refresher courses ensure all staff are up-to-date. These can be delivered in person or online, reviewing any updates in regulations, criteria, or application processing methods.

10. Monitoring and Review

The policy will be reviewed every year unless changes to internal procedures or legislation requires earlier review

11. Confidentiality/Record keeping

All applicant data is securely saved within identified college systems. Records will be kept in our system in-line with funding regulations and GDPR. For students who are aged 16 – 19 (or with an EHCP) then we share application data and enrolment data with the student's current education provider, or nominated local education area, to support them meeting legal requirements on reporting engagement in education figures. This includes name, date of birth and either the course you have applied for and current stage, or the course you have enrolled on. In applying for an apprenticeship then you are agreeing to us sharing your CV with potential employers that you have identified you would like to apply for a position with.

For any further information in relation to your data please refer to our GDPR policy as stated above.

12. Communication

- Policy Dissemination – The application policy is available to all staff, students, parents/carers and stakeholders on the college website and provided to all new staff as part of their induction.
- Annual Updates - Annual updates are provided to staff through staff development days, In the Loop, emails and online training. Reports are provided to Governors and Senior Leadership Team (SLT).

13. Evaluation and Reporting

Application Conversion Rates: Track the number of applications received and the conversion rate to actual enrolments. A high conversion rate often indicates effective admissions processes and policy alignment with student expectations.

Diversity and Inclusion: Assess the diversity of the student population in terms of categories such as disability, ethnicity, gender. Socio economic backgrounds. This helps determine if the policy is promoting equal opportunities and eliminating discrimination.

Student Feedback: Collect feedback from applicants and newly enrolled students about their experience with the application process through surveys, focus groups or interviews.

Completion and Retention Rates: Measure the retention rates of students from application through to completion of their courses. High retention and completion rates suggest that the admissions and IAG process is selecting students who are well-suited to the programme.

Processing Time: Track the average time from application submission to decision notification. Shorter processing times reflect efficient policy implementation, while delays may indicate bottlenecks or areas for process improvement.

Compliance with Policies: Regular audits will be held of random samples of applications to assess whether staff are following policy guidelines accurately.

14. Review and Amendment History

This policy will be reviewed annually to ensure it remains compliant with current legislation and is still effective.

15. Approval

Approved by Assistant Principal. Signed off by Principal or Chief Operating Officer.
